

Masies Empordà

Masia the XVII Century restore pending. Alt Empordà

Traditional Country House

In between Roses town and Cadaqués village, Alt Empordà region, Girona province, Catalonia

Description

Buildings: 4 (main house + secondary house attached to the main house + barn + corral)

Built in the 17th century. 750 sq m. Unrestored.

The property was built in a spectacular and unique setting; in the middle of a valley surrounded by fields and hills, right in between Roses town and Cadaqués village.

The access to the property from the road is excellent.

There is a path that goes from the property to Cap Nofreu's beaches. Cap Nofreu is a magnificent cape at the sound-east end of the Cap de Creus Natural Park (25 km south of the French border).
